9th Annual Tybee Island Irish Heritage Parade next weekend March 12th

TYBEE ISLAND, GA – Start the St. Patrick's Day celebration early this year. The Irish are coming to Tybee Island Saturday March 12th for the 9th Annual Tybee Island Irish Heritage Parade. The parade will start at 3pm and proceed down Butler Avenue to end on the Strand by the pier.

This Irish Parade began under the guidance of Jimmy and Jay Burke. Since its conception, it has become a Tybee tradition that seems to grow bigger every year. There will be lots of Irish families marching, along with bands, bagpipers, festive floats, the Alee Temple Shriners and straight from the Bahamas Junkanoo legends Barabbas and The Tribe! Good places to catch the parade are Butler Avenue between 6th and 10th Street and 12th Street on down. You are invited to join in this Irish Celebration, Tybee style!
